20 SAALON KI PARAMPARA

What began as a belief in 2006, became a tradition.

> Good food, made with honest ingredients, should be within reach of every family.

That belief began a small Diwali tradition in 2006 - making pure, honest mithai accessible to more families, without compromising on what went into it.

In the early years, our family personally made and distributed the mithai, spending our own Diwali serving others. What began with a few families soon travelled across Vadodara - from one home to another, one celebration to the next.

Today, that tradition has grown into HanuRam — serving families, corporates and communities, producing over 1,50,000 kg during Diwali alone, and taking the flavours of India beyond our shores.

> Much has changed in 20 years.
> Our scale has grown.
> Our reach has crossed borders.
> But what we believe has not.

Good ingredients. Honest prices.
Food made with responsibility.

'Parampara 20 Saalon Ki' is more than a celebration of how far we have come.
It is our promise to remain rooted in why we began.
